

Make sure the customer repository is in place and useable.

NEVER do any real update-steps without an active ISMAS trigger.

in case someone has changed the zone (which means changed the branch)

opkg_commands always counts as a file to update

Update Json-configuration files) and the device controller firmware.

Sync tariff-files and ini-files with local filesystem.